FORTRESS 76

Fort Hunt High School

Fairfax County, Virginia

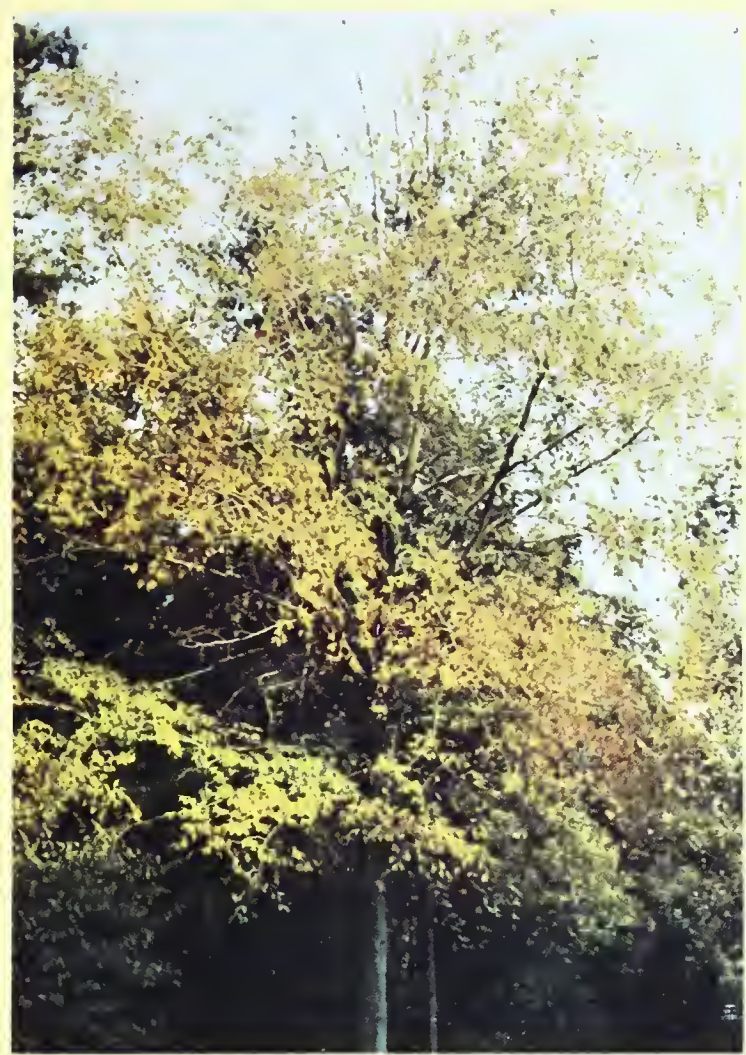

Volume XIII

*"I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided,
and that is the lamp of experience. I know of no way of judging of the future
but by the past."*

Rachel,
Remember
bowling and never leave the 5 pin up alone!
Have fun recreation it out next year!
Yours,
Johanna

Rachel -
Good luck & best wishes for a future filled with success & happiness.
Have a fun summer &
see you next year.
D Anderson

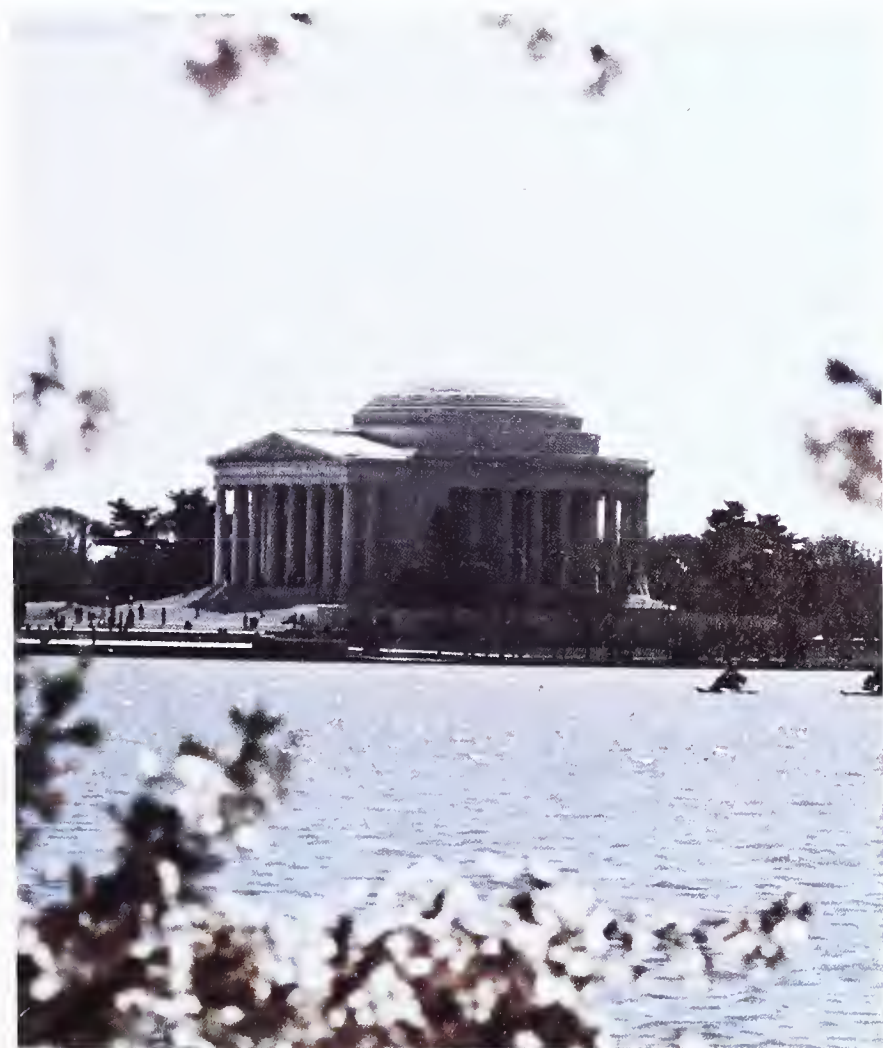

Knowledge of the past . . .

"That this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth".

Abraham Lincoln

"These are the times that try men's souls"

Thomas Paine

I wish for you a great future in a peacefull world.

Lee Salisbury

*"Man's flight through life is sustained by the power of his knowledge."
The Air Force Academy*

"It is through his knowledge that man has found his greatest happiness."

James Smithson

"I have sworn upon the altar of God, eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man."

Thomas Jefferson

*"We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,
that among these are Life,
Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."
Declaration of Independence
July 4, 1776*

Knowledge of the past leads to . . .

Hope for the future.

In this, our bicentennial year we are not to gloat about our past achievements, but urged to look to tomorrow.

Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should be dyin' but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up, always up

Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace — like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up

We may never pass this way again . . .

SENIORS

We need men with broader vision,
Men who look ahead to see
How our world can be made better
In the years that are to be.

Pulitzer Prize*

If you will build your castles in the air
 Your work will not be lost.
 That is where they should be
 Now put your foundations under them.

Every day there dawns a new star. To each man it shines a different color.

Homecoming, the time for the return to high school of persons once part of it; the time for those people to be part of it again. And yet, does Homecoming offer a chance to pull together the parts of a diversified whole? Is that its intent? Its outcome: the answer lies within the individual.

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE

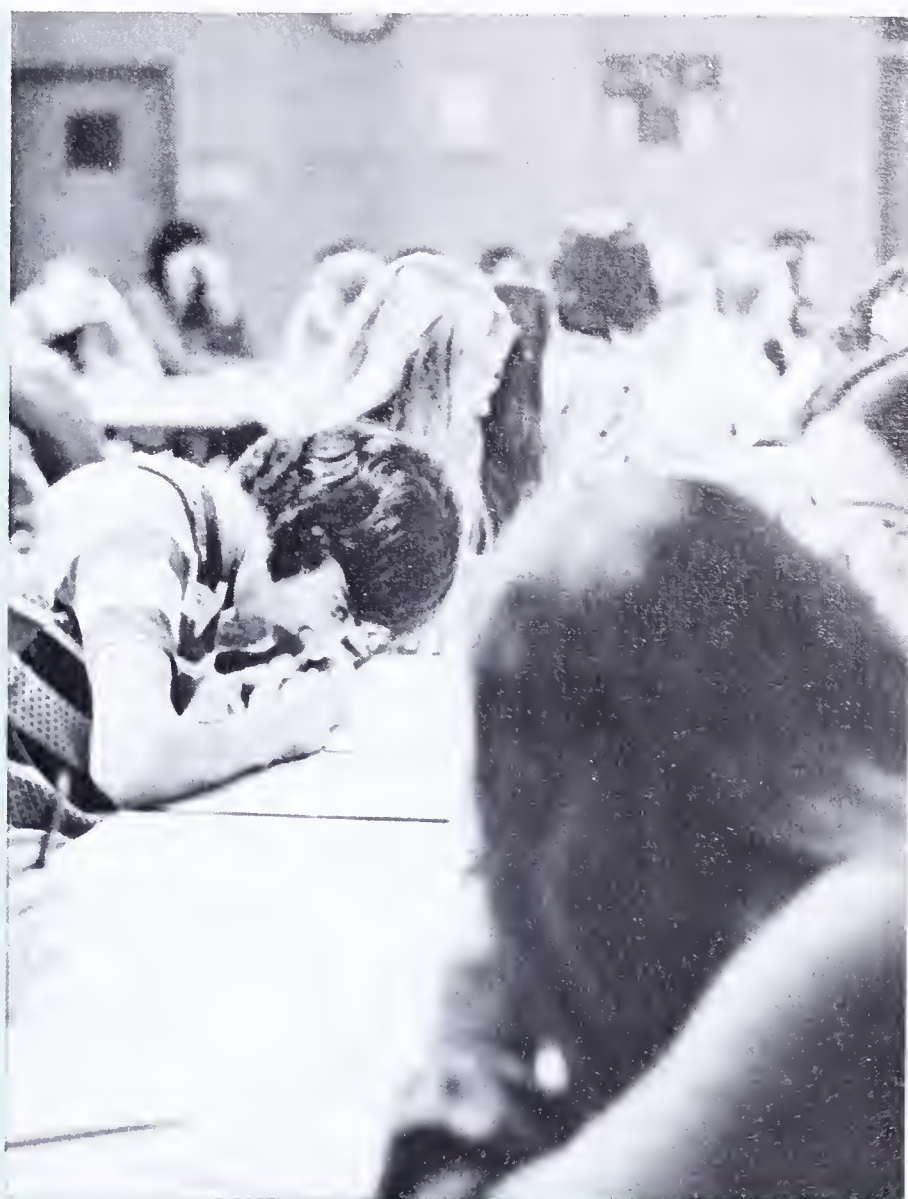

What makes you think you're so special? Are you listening? What I said . . . what I'm trying to say . . . I'm saying, You are so special. You're my teacher. So teach me. Help me. Hey teach, which way do I go? I'm tired of going up the down staircase.

Fort Hunt Life

Fort Hunt life this year was filled with both usual and unusual events. Pictures were taken, leadership and Human Relations Seminars were held, both of which involved alot of students. Oh! The agony of taking PSAT's at eight o'clock on a Saturday morning. The arrival of a new principal this year caused quite a stir. "Is he really seven feet tall?" And a bomb scare in the front parking lot helped to liven school life up a little, too. All in all, it was another interesting year at Fort Hunt High School.

Band Competitions — Robinson

The Fort Hunt Marching Band, for the third time in succession, captured first place at the pinnacle of Fall Band Competitions, Robinson. The band received a superior rating, and triumphed over Falls Church with awards for Best Band Front and Best of All Bands.

Rockin' the Night Away!

Hops became a fun tradition at Fort Hunt this year. Almost every other weekend, with a variety of bands and D.J.'s, the Fort Hunt students managed to rock the nights away.

Well Crocodile rockin' is something shockin'
 When your feet just can't keep still,
 I never knew me a better time
 And I guess I never will.

ORCHESTRA . . . BERMUDA BOUND!

The hard work over the past years of the Fort Hunt Orchestra has finally paid off. The group made a trip this year during spring break to Bermuda for an annual Spring Festival. In order to make enough money for the trip, they sold original cookbooks for $5.00 each. Journeying to such different places as Austria and Bermuda, the Fort Hunt music groups have been quite successful.

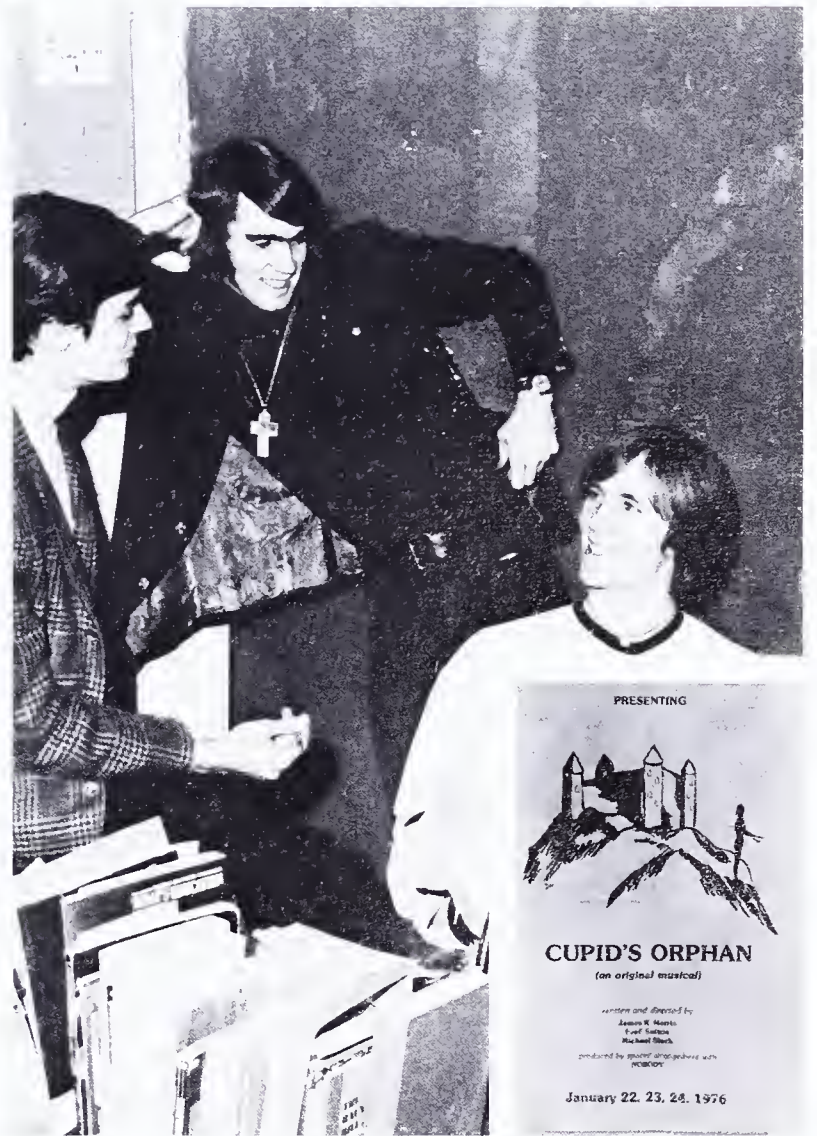

Cupid's Orphan

Cupid's Orphan is the first play in F.H. history to be written, directed, and produced by students alone. With music composed by Mike Black and Tim Morris, and script written by Feef Sutton, the play was a sparkling creation about the various types of love. It ran for three successful nights, drawing rave reviews. The production of Cupid's Orphan says a lot about the amount of talent at Fort Hunt.

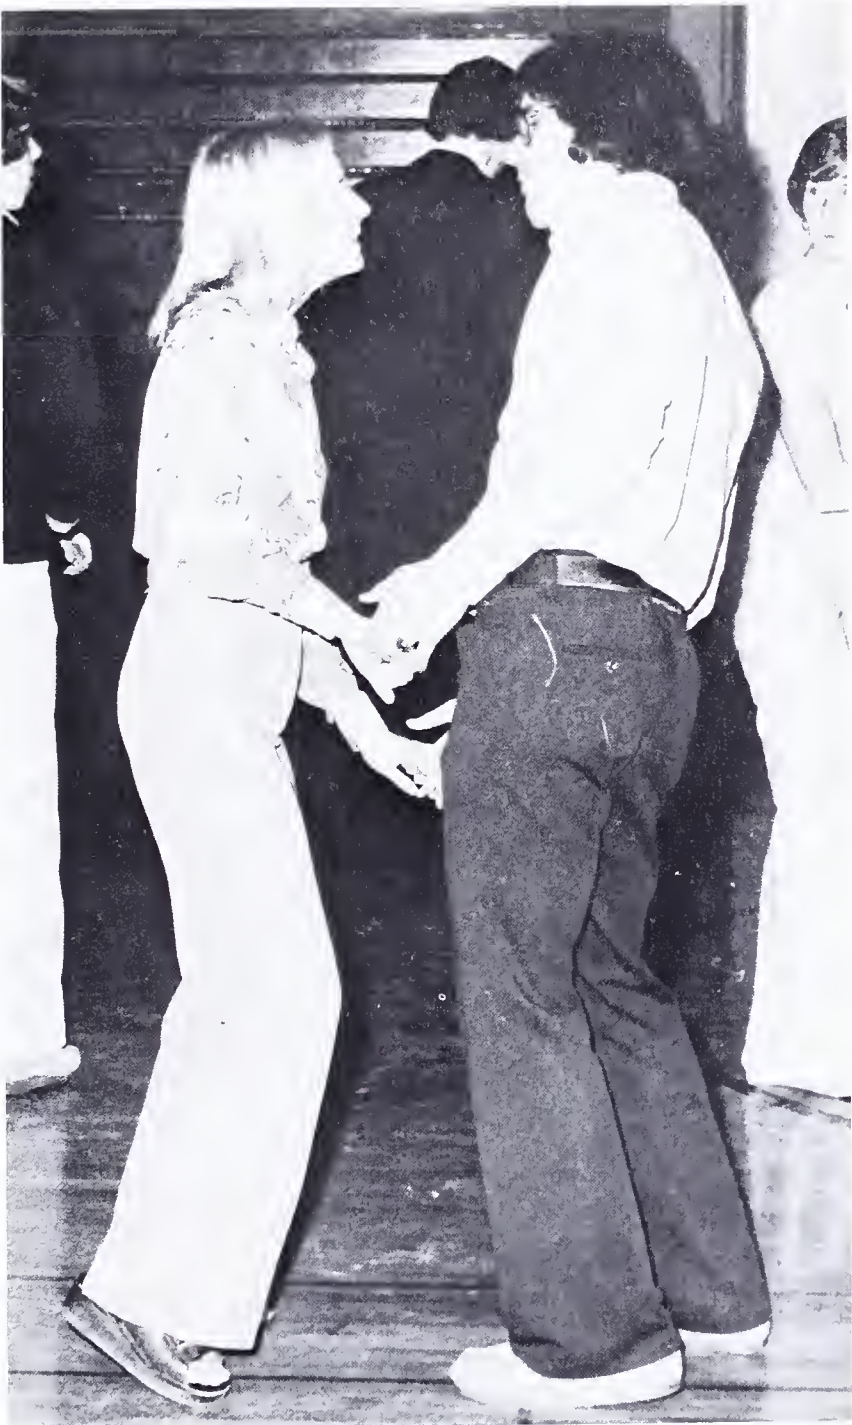

The Inside Strait dance was one of the many during the winter of 1976 at Fort Hunt. The band, Inside Strait, from New Jersey, was really good. Returning since an engagement here last year, it has added a few new members. As students danced away to the tunes, a few new dances and a few old ones were evident. The Bump, the Hustle, the Jitterbug, and just good old rock and rollin' helped make the evening a fun one.

Inside Strait

Black History Week

Black History Week filled the whole week of February 13 with field trips, lectures, plays, and assemblies. Rotating assemblies let students out of class to hear lectures with various blacks from the D.C. area. The play, entitled "Purlie Victorious", was a well-done production about a Southern slaveowner and his prejudices. A final assembly featured a reading of the poem, "He Walked In Darkness" by John Lukes, a member of the D.C. Black Repertory, backed by the F.H. Symphonic band. F.H. students read various selections of black literature, including the "I Have a Dream" speech by Martin Luther King. The whole experience was great for everyone involved.

Mr. Wonderful

The annual Mr. Wonderful dance was held on February 14, in time for lots of sweethearts to dress-up and go dancing. Sponsored by Tri-Hi-Y, the dance (held in the gym decorated with big red hearts saying "Love me" or "Squeeze me") was fairly successful. Held in the rush of winter dances, attendance was not as large as expected. However, no one seemed to notice as couples enjoyed the music by Maranautha, and watched as Bob Jansen was announced F.H.'s Mr. Wonderful of 1976.

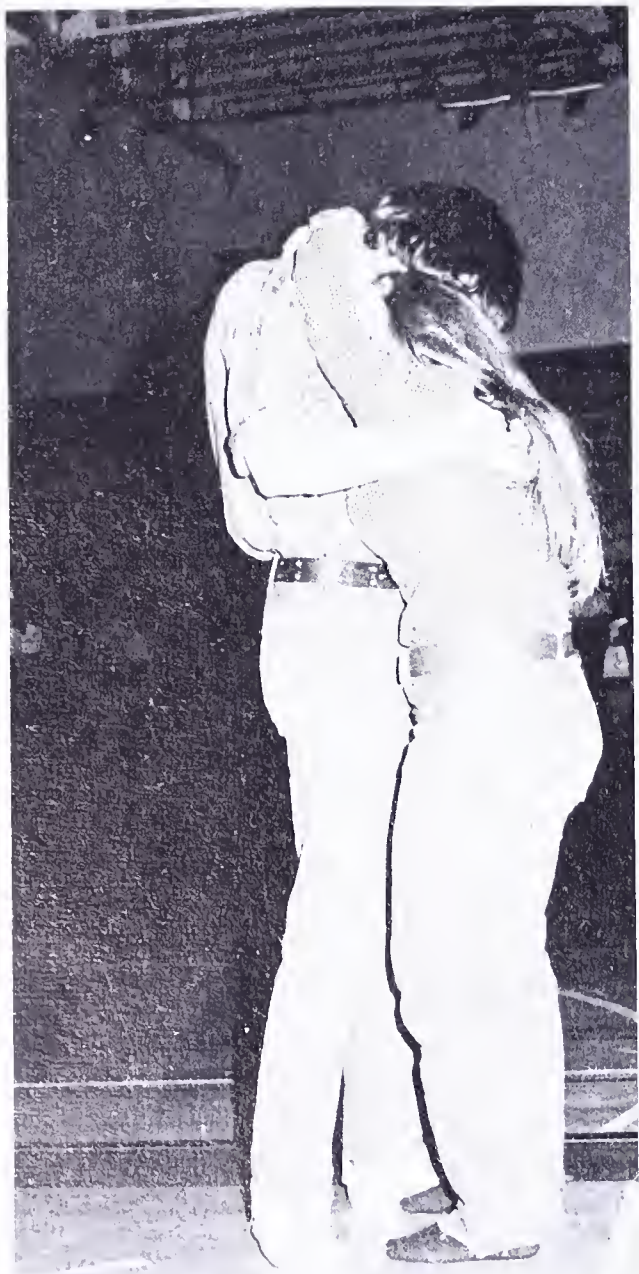

Mr. Wonderful, Bob Jansen, escorting Vicki Shearer.

INTERNATIONAL BANQUET

"Eat, Drink, and be merry!" could have been the slogan for the International Banquet held at the beginning of March in the cafeteria. With everything from apple streudel to tacos, many Fort Hunt students, some dressed in brilliantly colored apparel, ate their hearts out. After the feast came a costume contest, won by a Spaniard, a Latin, and a Russian, and their traditional skits. The evening seemed to be quite a success, and even cleaning up afterwards could not dim the memories of fun and the joy of eating that had preceded.

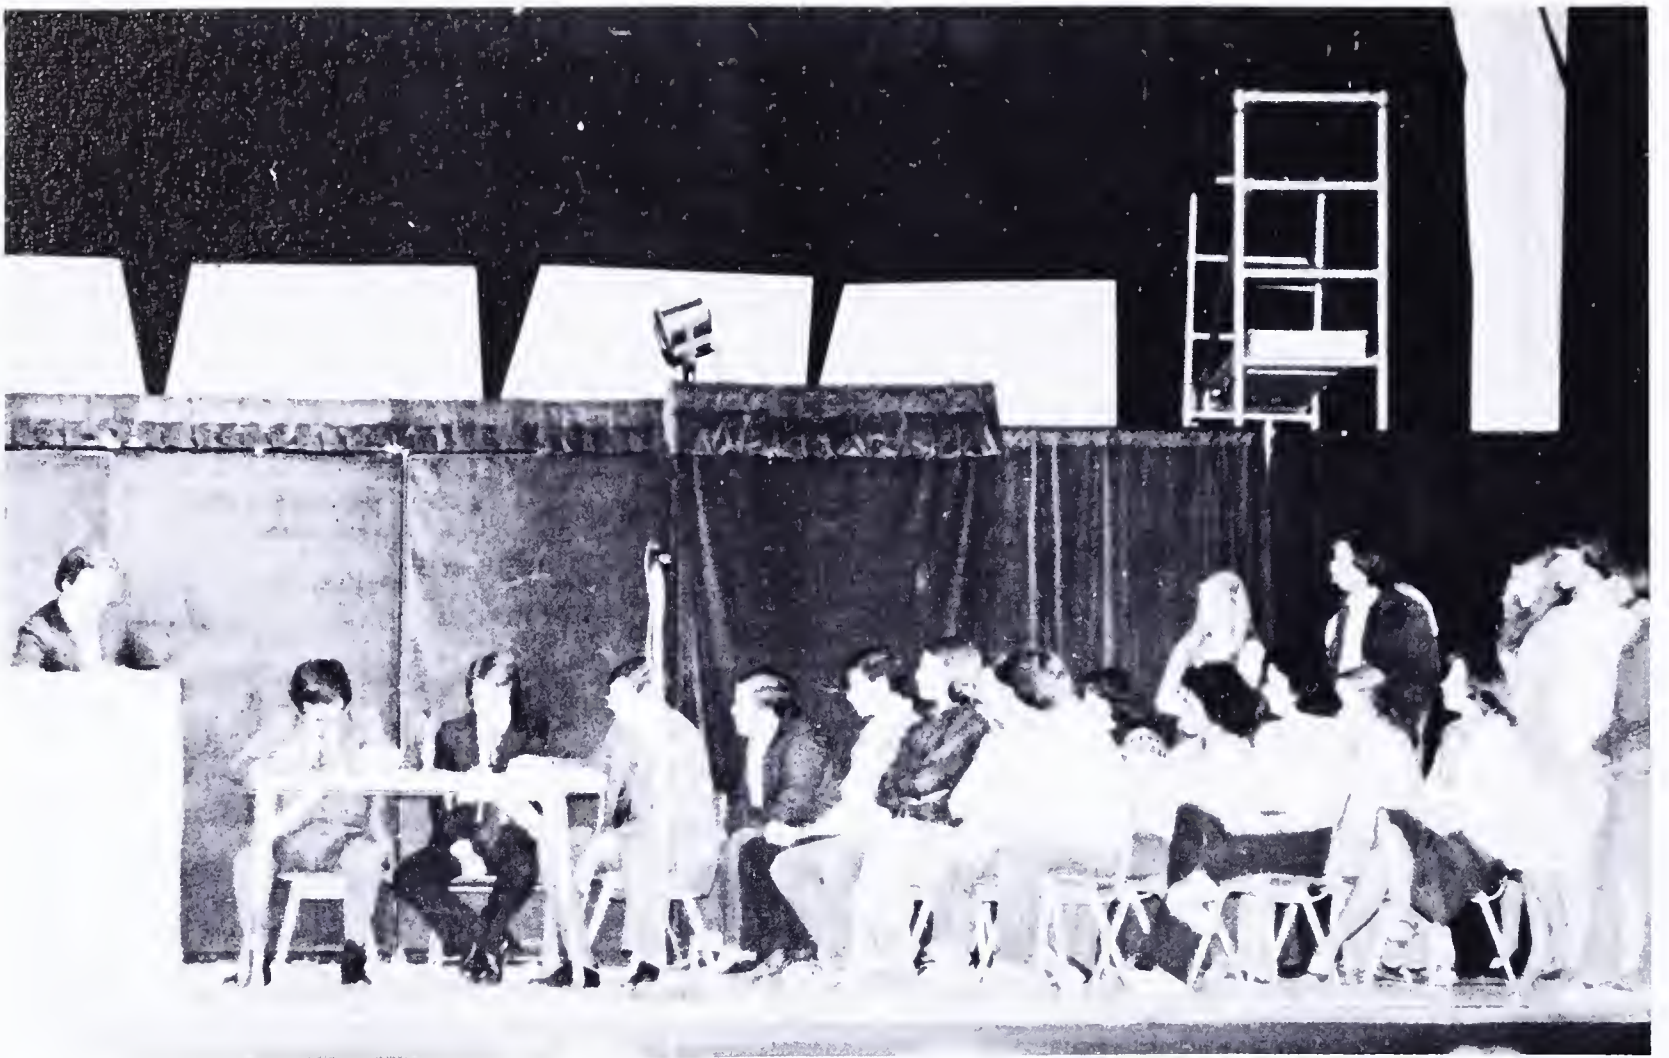

Sadie Hawkins — the only time of year when the girls ask the guys out. (Maybe not?) Everyone dressed up in gingham, checks, and jeans and danced all night long. Some couples even got married by Chris Normyle, the Marrin' Sam. All in all, the night was a doggone huge success.

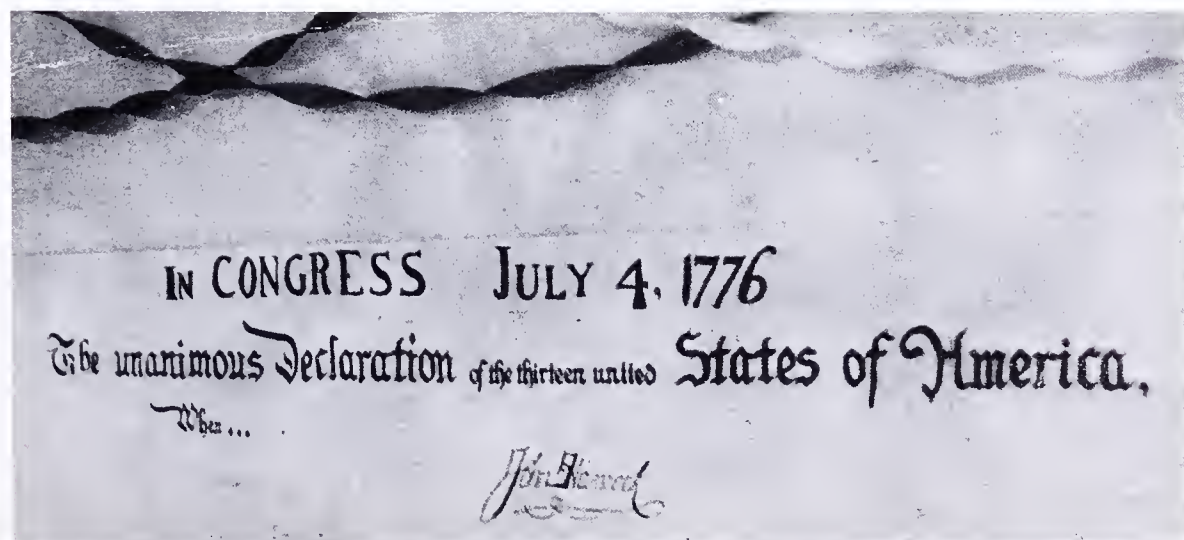

SADIE HAWKINS

BICENTENNIAL WEEK

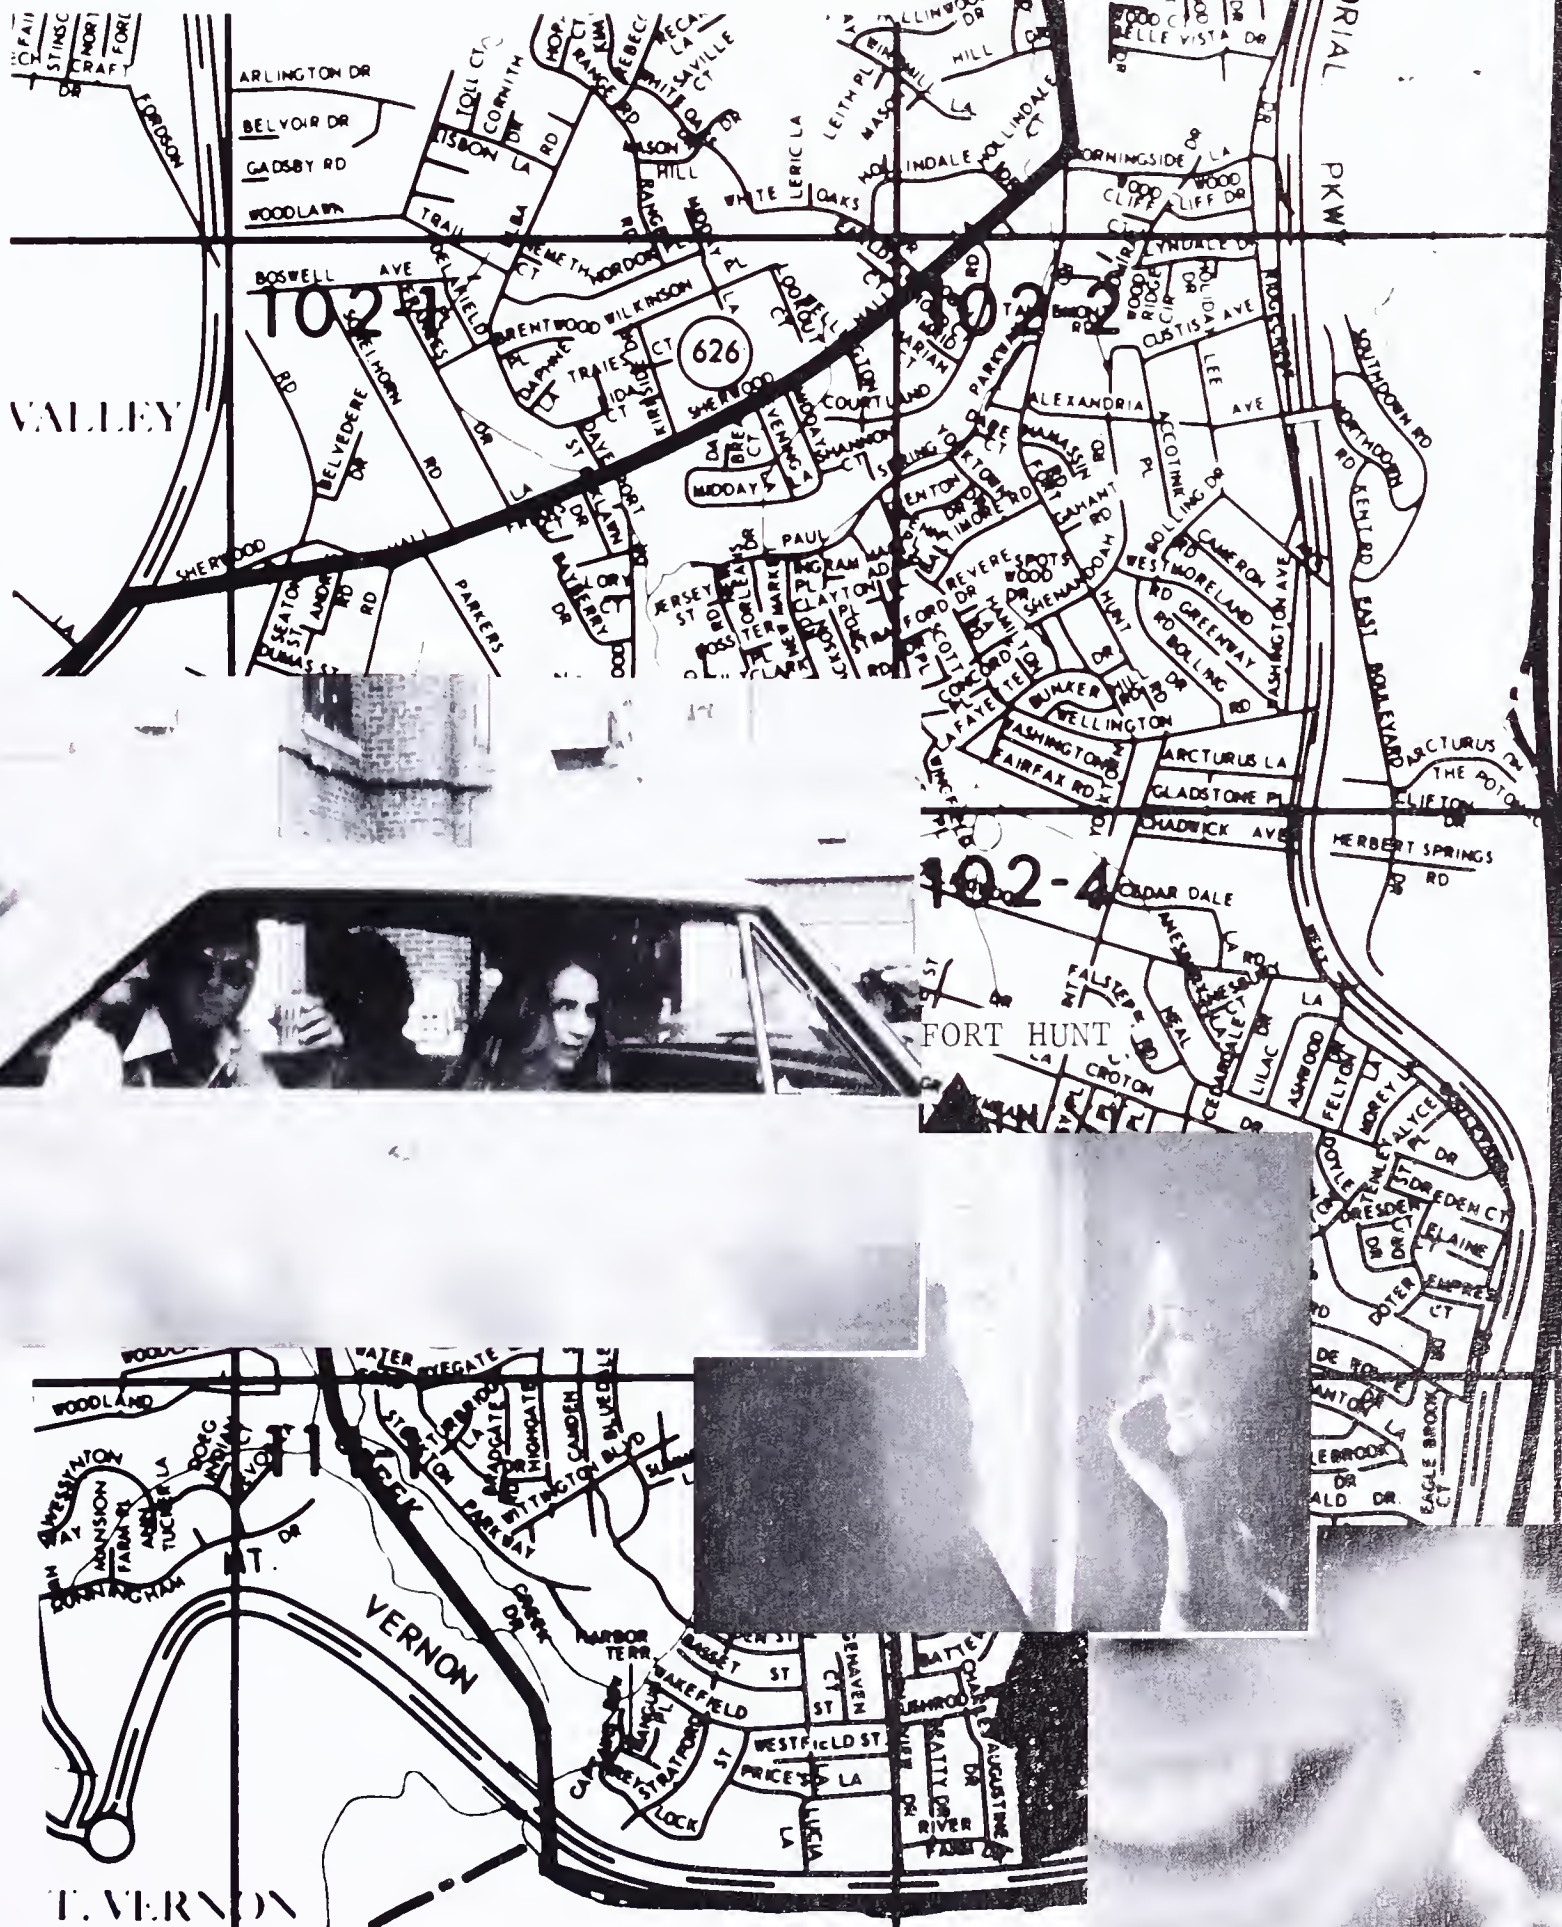

Bicentennial Week, designed to commemorate the nation's 200th Birthday, was filled with many activities. These included: Red, white and blue day, a tree planting ceremony, and hall decorations. The week went off well and ended with an assembly depicting the kind of patriotism found throughout Virginia during the year.

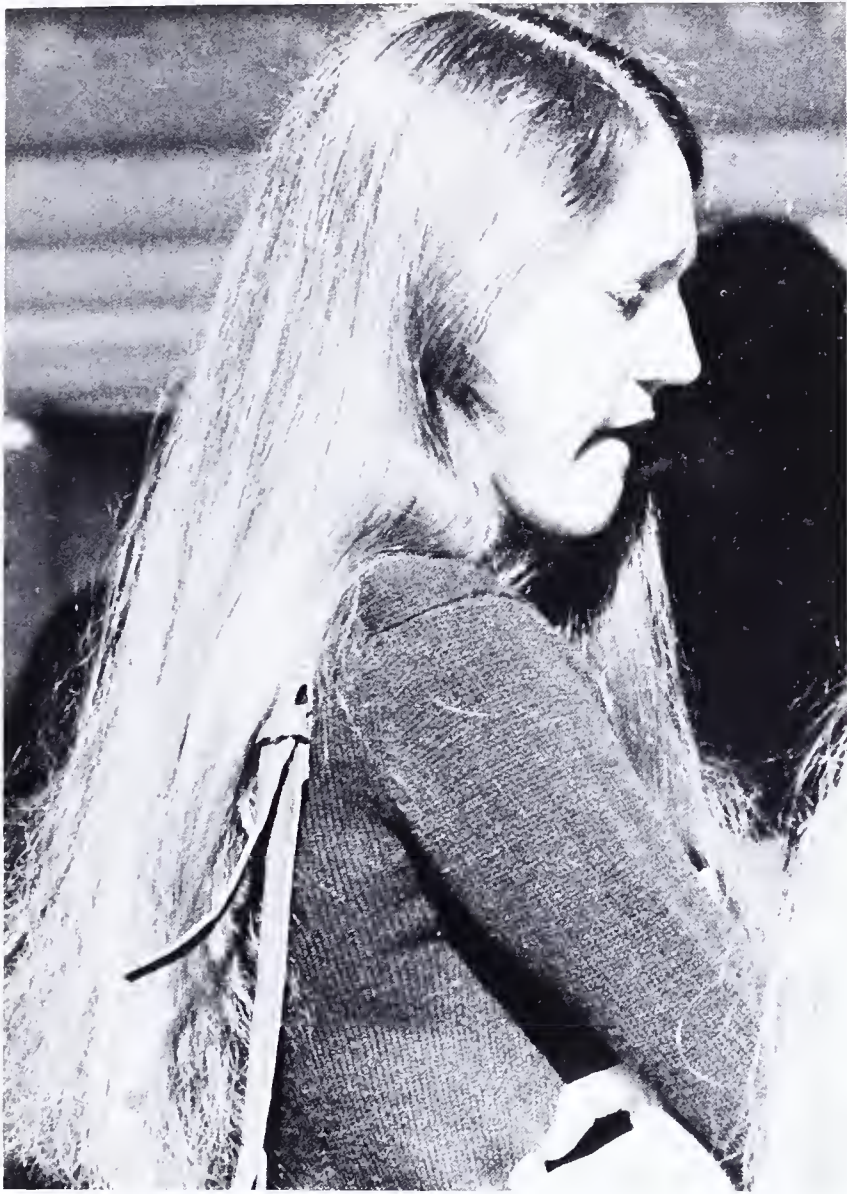

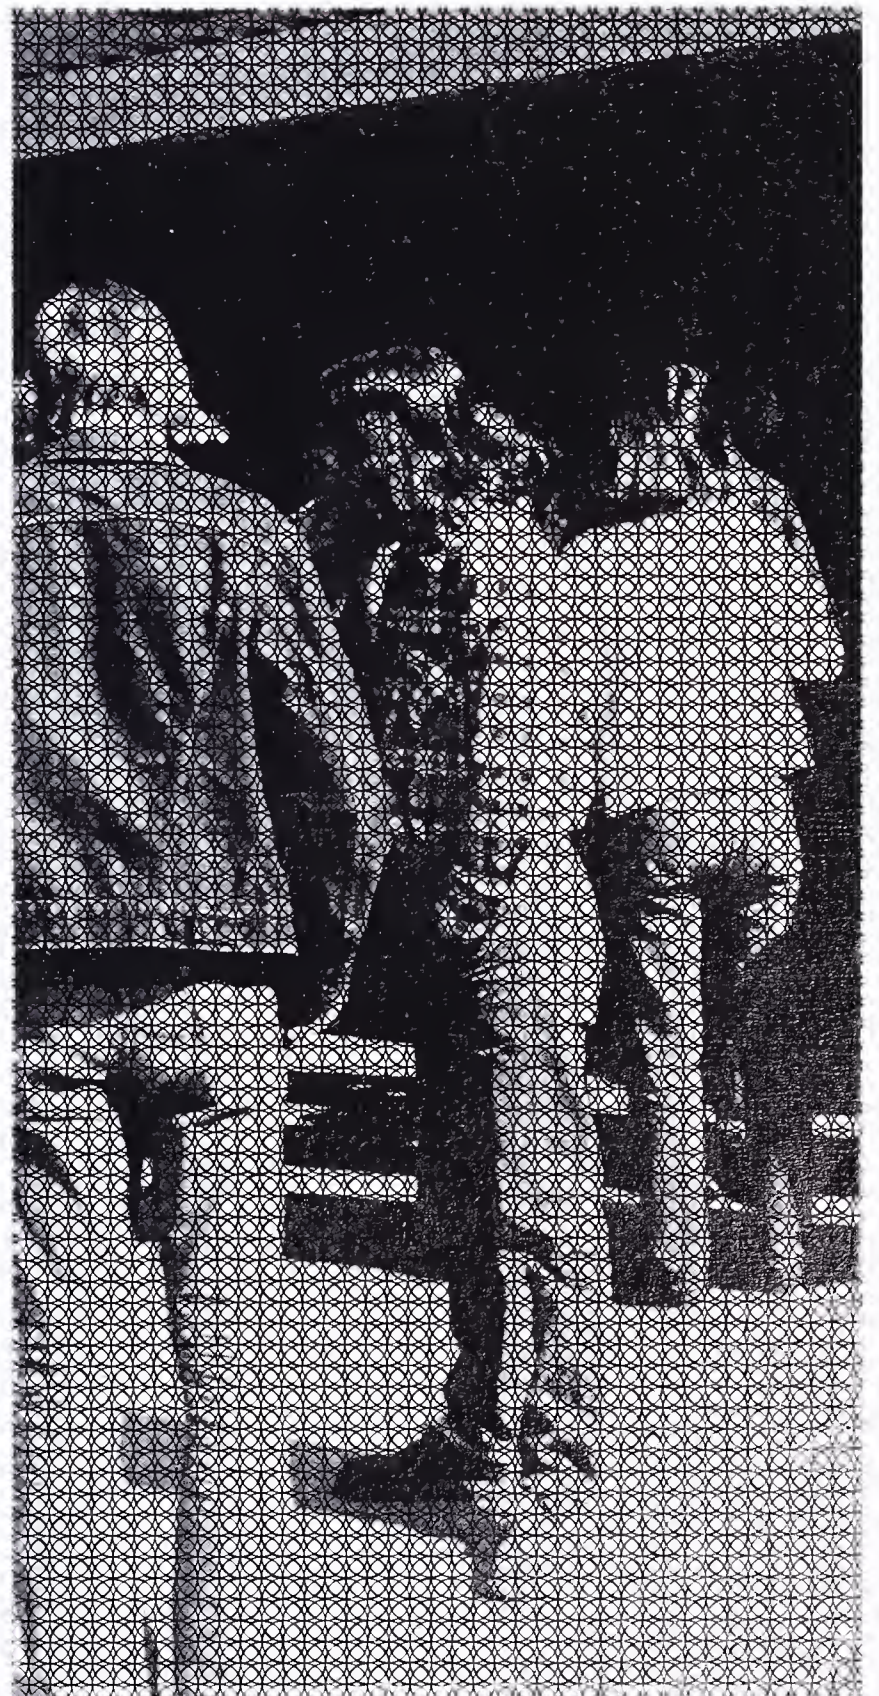

Don't let me hear you say life's taking you nowhere, angel.
This'll stick with you, baby, for a thousand years,
Nothing's going to touch you in these golden years,
Golden years.

FORT HUNT LIFE

LIL' ABNER

This play involved close to 150 people in cast, chorus, crew, and orchestra. This production, taken from the popular comic strip, "Lil' Abner," was given within a week of the Sadie Hawkins dance, resulting in a period of country activities. Perhaps the fact that two of the three nights were completely full represents the great attraction of the musical. Directed by Edward Gassek, all involved worked for six weeks, steadily improving the quality of the songs and dances. One of the biggest hits of the show was the massive paper mache statue representing Gen. Jubilation T. Cornpone, built by Doreen Murray. Success seems to come easily for the Fort Hunt Players, but hard work and determination to make that success come even more easily.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BASKETBALL

FACULTY BASKETBALL

These two games, while not heavily attended, were important to the persons involved. In the Junior-Senior basketball game, both teams played well, with the Juniors winning by just one point. Consequently, Senior class president Bob Jansen received a pie in the face from Mary Ann Bastedo, president of the victorious Juniors. The students won hands down in the Student-Faculty game, which was pretty comic as the school's most courageous teachers struggled with the school's toughest students. Both games were great fun.

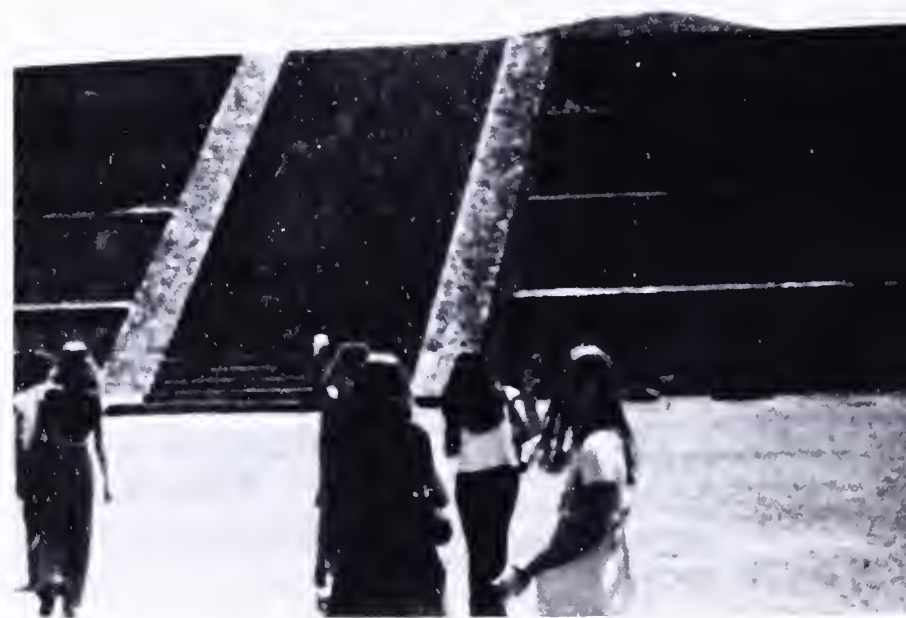

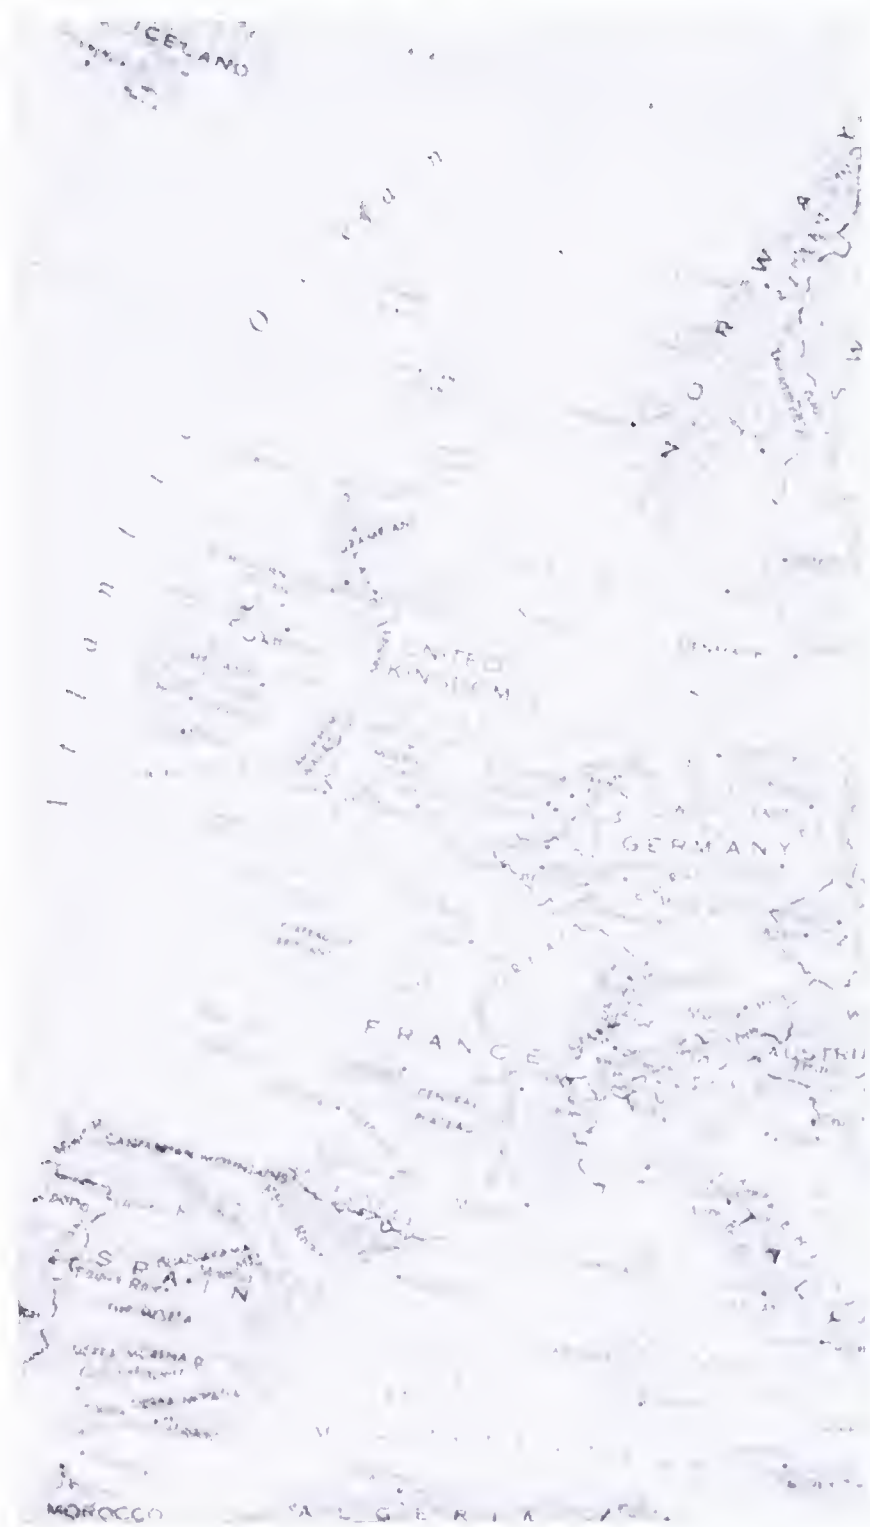

FT. HUNT GOOD TIMES

FEDERALS ON THE MOVE

Sweeping cobwebs from the edges of my mind,
 Had to get away to seek what we could find,
 Hope the days that lie ahead
 Bring us back to where they've lead
 Listen to what's been said to you.

One morning I woke up and I knew you were really gone.

A new day, a new way,
And new eyes to see the dawn.

Gone you way
I'll go mine and carry on.

The sky is clearing and the night has cried enough

The sun he comes the world to soften up.

Rejoice, rejoice, we have no choice but to carry on.

The fortunes of fables are able to see the stars,

Now witness the quickness with which we carry on

To sing the blues, you've got to live the dues

And carry on.

Where are you going now?
Where will you be tomorrow?
Will you bring me happiness?
Will you bring sorrow?

Are the questions of a thousand dreams
What you do and what you see
Can you talk to me?

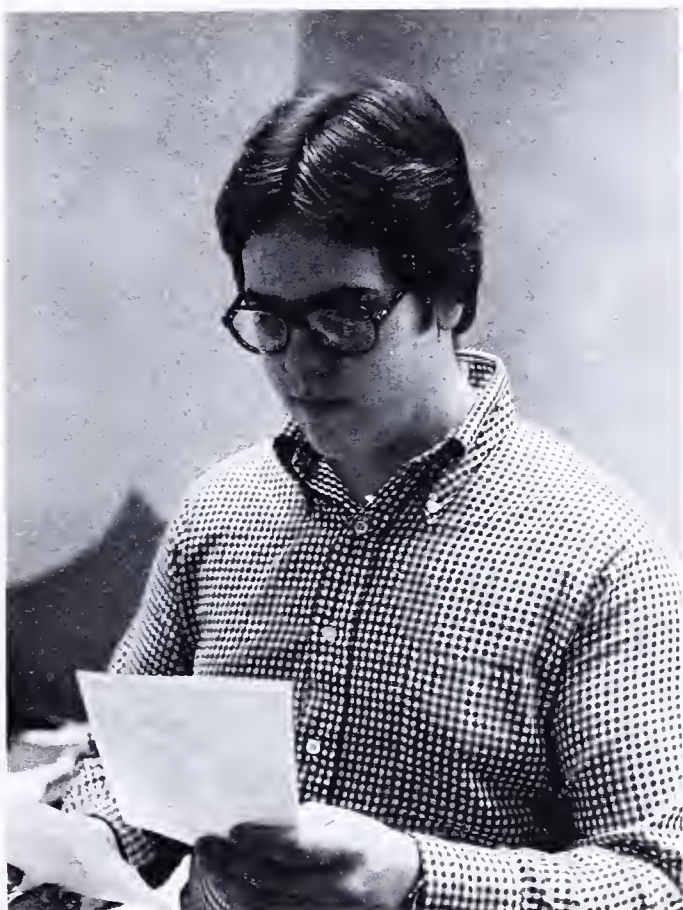

ORGANIZATIONS

Every man's work, whether it be literature or music or pictures or architecture or anything else, is always a portrait of himself, and the more he tries to conceal himself the more clearly will his character appear in spite of him.

Starting the winning streak by sinking Lake Braddock 13-0 the Federals were heading toward a victorious season. The big defense blocked two points setting up one score and getting the next six points by themselves. Against Hayfield, with the defense only allowing six points and the offense putting 23 points on the score board, the Feds brought the streak up to two games. With thumping victories over Mount Vernon 43-6 and West Springfield 20-0, the team gained their third and fourth wins. Moving into a first place tie with Annandale, the Feds scored a thrilling come from behind victory over T.C. Williams. Winning their homecoming game 20-0, the Feds added Robinson to their mighty surge. Finally marking down the first place tie, our Federals destroyed Woodson 34-6. Great year for the Fighting Feds!

Fed defense holds the line

This year our Federals moved into the Northern Super District and few people expected the team to win many games; in fact, a local paper went as far as to say that the only team that would not be in the running for the district title would be Fort Hunt. Well our fabulous Feds made them eat their words as they finished with the best record of any football team in the history of Fort Hunt with 8-1-1. Also capturing a share of the district title, the Feds were voted as the number one team in Northern Virginia by the coaches. The Federals accomplished all this by the superb coaching of "coach of the year," Frank Crenenti and his incredible assistants William "win em" Harper and "Professor" Brad King.

The Federals had a slow start with a record after three games of 1-1-1. Some people had their doubts and thought the season was over, but our boys never gave up. In the remaining seven games they destroyed their opponents, winning all seven games handily. During this streak the offense scored 175 points while the stubborn defense only gave up 33 points.

Pom poms and megaphones add to the spirit of the games.

"I was really impressed with the spirit of the student body this year," exclaimed Elizabeth Langley. "It was especially great when we had pep cheers between the classes to see who could yell the loudest. In their rivalries, the classes showed a lot of spirit and enthusiasm!" With this impetus, the cheerleaders hoped to increase attendance and audience participation at games and assemblies.

Sparkling the crowds came easily for the twelve cheerleaders, four of whom attended a cheerleading camp in the summer at Salisbury State College in Maryland. They received a superior ribbon for their outstanding cheering.

Miss Grable advised the squad throughout the season. "This year has been hard on us, but we think that the squads that were produced were the best Fort Hunt has ever had," explained co-captains, Allison Allen and Mandy Gasper. Along with cheering at the games and assemblies, the cheerleaders showed their dedication by decorating the halls on game days and acting as secret pals to the football and basketball players.

Mandatory Drill Team practice starts in mid August and lasts through football season. Voluntary practices last through basketball. This year's co-captains were Barbara Califf and Janie Taylor. Because of the extremely rainy fall, Drill team marched at only three of the five home games. During basketball Drill Team performed at two half times. One of the cutest routines was done in a strip tease style.

One of the hardest things to learn is to guide.

Jimmy Holtzclaw under pressure as he looks for a receiver.

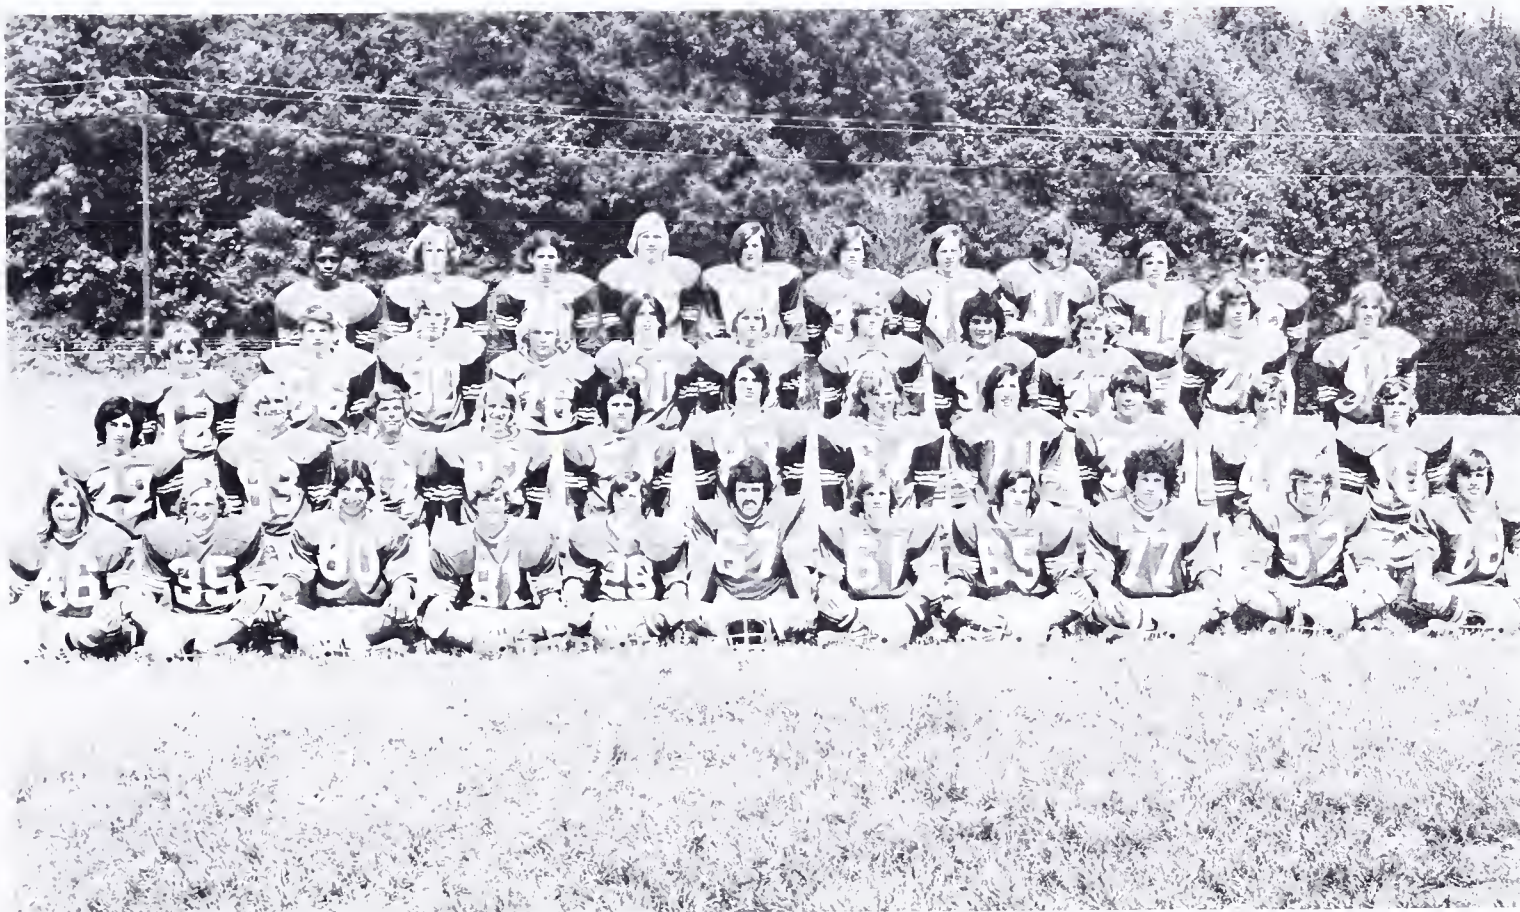

Federal offense racks up another gain.

Coached by Andy Tisinger and assisted by Mr. John Shortridge, the JV Football Team pulled through their season with a 4-3-1 record. Two of the defeats were lost by only a touchdown and the other game by a field goal.

Led by squad-captains Mark Saunders, Glenn Judd, Randy Iacone and Eric Logan, the team attitude was close and spirited. Spirit, coupled with the tremendous amount of skill found on the team, created, as coach Tisinger said, "a well disciplined group of athletes for next year's varsity team." The coaches award went to Mike Meade.

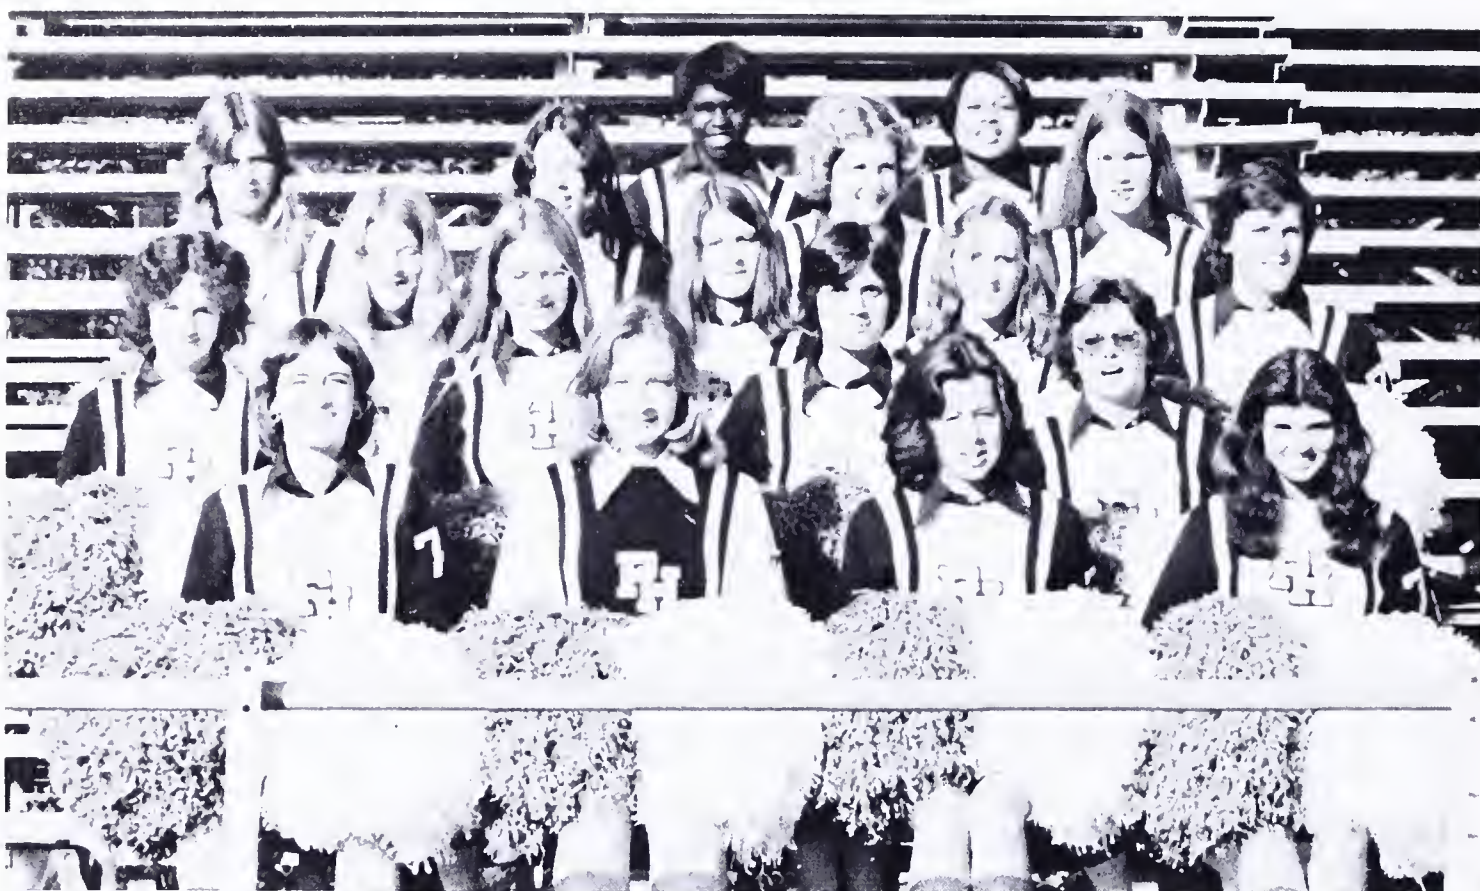

The team incurred some problems at the end of the season as some members of the team were cut because they admitted that they had failed to abide by a contract that they signed at the beginning of the season regarding the rules and regulations of the team. The team overcame these problems to end a fine year.

"Im looking forward to having this group on varsity next year," explains coach Tisinger as he looks ahead to the next season.

Coach Schoellig contemplates strategy for team.

Led by three seniors, the Varsity Hockey Team had a good season. The team was a young one and all but the three seniors will be returning next year. Wanda Peterson and Karen Stanley were the co-captains with Karen receiving the coaches award and Teresa Ware the Most Valuable Player award. The varsity team is looking forward to a fantastic season next year.

The J.V. Hockey Team also had a very good year. The highlight of the season was an impressive win over T.C. Williams. "This was my first year of coaching girls' field hockey. They were a terrific team and we had a winning season," remarked Coach Cochran of her team.

Cross Country finishes fifth and Led by two outstanding runners, Pete Tatro and Matt Smith, the cross country team had a fantastic season, finishing fifth in the county. The year began with four members of the team participating in the Skyline Drive Marathon, where they ran 26 miles for 4 days. For the second year in a row, Pete Tatro was selected by the Gazette as the region's outstanding runner.

Football coach, Frank Creneti, said of Pete and Matt, "Very few teams in the nation have a team with a one-two punch like Tatro and Smith."

The Fort Hunt swim team had an undefeated season lead by co-captains Mike Fitzgerald and Julie Richards. They won the Northern District and made a good showing at both regionals and Virginia State Competition despite the mass disqualifications incurred this season. The secret of success was their ability to "psyche out" opponents and out swim them. With the strong support of Virginia State Champion divers Becky Binney and Allan Jones, the team scored well in competition.

FACULTY

He who receives an idea from me, receives instruction himself without lessening mine; as he who lights his taper at mine, receives light without darkening me.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administrative staff is responsible for the instructional program, its policies, procedures, and evaluation and the coordination of attendance and grading. It also supervises the many facets of the program related to the entire student body's welfare, and directs extra-curricular activities. The introduction of the administrative team concept helped to bring together varied ideas and suggestions in an effort to build a stronger school.

*Manta Holden, administrative aide
Jeffrey Dietze, director of student activities
Sue Bach, front office secretary
James Manning, principal*

Stewart Christiano, assistant principal - 9, 10 grades
 Betty Farrell, principal's secretary
 Diana Schmelzer, assistant principal - instruction
 David Budd, assistant principal - 11, 12 grades

GUIDANCE

The Guidance counselors assist all students to develop plans for the future and prepare the necessary statistical data for permanent records and college applications. They administer the required standardized tests and initiate schedule changes. In addition, the office provides information on awards and scholarships and helps with numerous personal problems.

ENGLISH

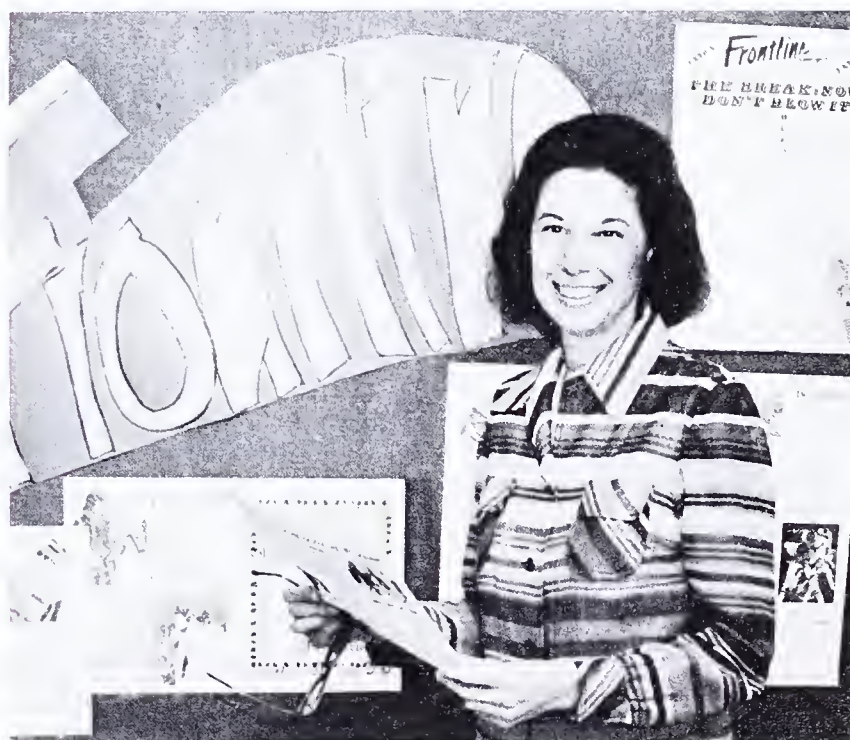

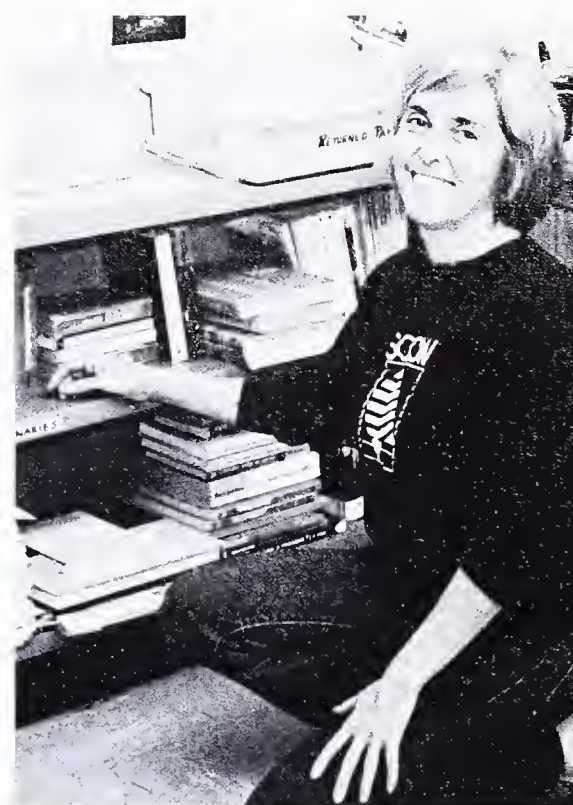

In constant change, the English program again reappraised its system, dividing the curriculum between the upper and lower classes. Still in use on the junior-senior level is the Base/Elective plan more clearly defined in regularity. Also new to this level was the six-week grading period, allowing greater diversity in course selection and a firmer Base class in skills.

Additionally, American Studies continued to provide the unique alternative of history through literature.

SCIENCE

Chemistry II was introduced into the Science department curriculum in its perennial effort to expand the mind's grasp. In addition, biology, physics, and other chemistry courses span the endless field of these natural studies. However comprehensive these classes are, they but scratch the surface of our puzzling Earth.

Lisa Grable
John Shortridge
Elizabeth Goodman
Richard Hessler
Joseph Jakobowski

SOCIAL STUDIES

The Social Studies department continues to offer Ancient, Medieval and Modern European history as alternatives to the traditional World Studies. In the U.S. history and Government fields, the department strives toward a more useful two-year program, and perhaps the addition of a Base/Elective system. To broaden character and insight by coupling facts with concepts and to instill a deeper understanding of today's events and crisis is the department's objective and accomplishment.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Two new part-time teachers were added in German and Russian to complement an essentially stable staff in French, Spanish, and Latin. Despite a reduced enrollment, the Language department at Fort Hunt continues its outstanding success in producing caliber students by supplying technical and literary studies as well as an appreciation of other cultures.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home economics provides the vital skills and tips for family life and personal adjustment. Chores such as cooking and sewing and essential budgeting are perfected through practice and are creatively improved.

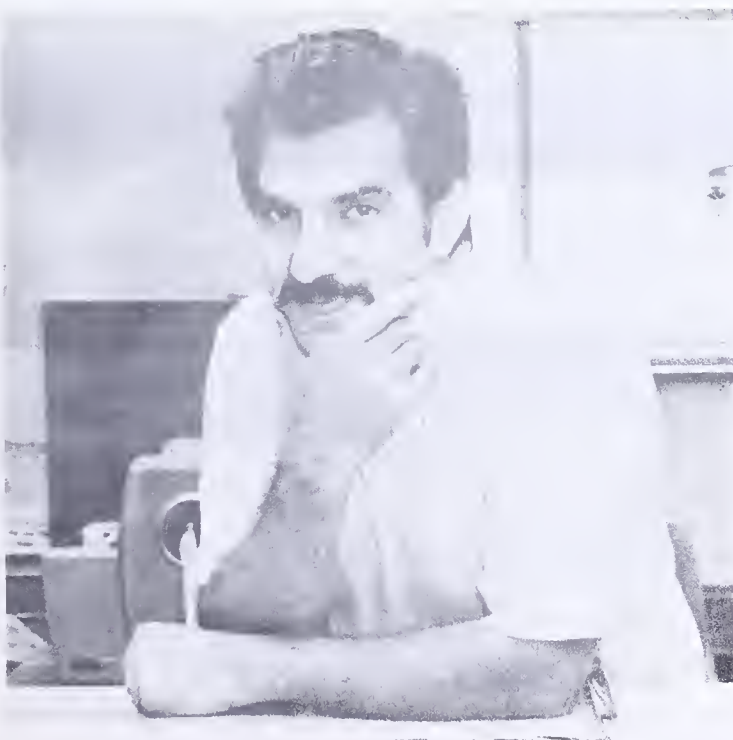

Janet Eubanks, chairperson
Callie Crosby

ART

The Art department, while enjoying the creative artistry of many gifted upperclassmen, has had an exceptionally fine influx of talented freshmen. Their projects include lettering, pottery, printing, ceramics, and painting.

Leonard Terrell
Sam Kladitis
Edwin Dunn, chairperson

FINE ARTS

In a timeless pursuit of perfection, the Fine Arts provide a catalyst for beauty, pleasure, and originality. Among the Drama offerings this year was an original musical production which was staged for the first time. Traditionally, the musicians noted for their quality have won more than their share of Awards. The Band combined with the orchestra for their first joint Christmas concert, while in separate trips the band embarked on a Philadelphia bicentennial excursion, and the orchestra headed south to Bermuda for an international concert.

Harry Blake, band director
Marilyn Schwaner, orchestra director
John Murray, choral director

LIBRARY

The Media Center continues in its role as a storehouse of knowledge at Fort Hunt. Here is found a utopia for study, reading and research. In addition to over 26,000 different volumes of books, the center has expanded its scope of services with an increasing number of filmstrips, tapes and records.

Virginia Kandt
Jean Hinman, head librarian
Nancy Wallace, media aide

DRIVER EDUCATION

Driver's Education fielded all aspects of driving and prepared students for split-second decisions. Behind-the-wheel experience provided the perfection of those maneuvers essential to safe motoring.

Donald Jones, classroom
Ralph Fox, behind-the-wheel

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Renovating their department, Physical Education undertook many changes in its system. Health was taught by all teachers this year to coeducational classes, while regular P.E. classes were also co-ed. In another move, sports were elected to enable the student to participate in an unfamiliar activity, or to perfect known skills.

Dorothy McKinney, finance
Trudy Smith, nurse

Imperative to Fort Hunt's smooth progress are the IBM and Finance offices. The nurse is concerned with the health of each student and the treatment of school-related accidents.

SUPPORT PERSONNEL

Cafeteria Staff

Standing: H. Rhodes, M. Willis, H. Stocks, J. Barnett, C. Null, E. Stanaski, I. Liming, B. Huffer, J. Bradshaw, M. Cox, E. Wheatley Seated: E. Baggett, S. Housefield, V. Dodge – Manager, W. Ranck, V. Lucas, A. Swann

Custodial Staff

Standing: R. Shelton, A. Deeker, M. Wilson Seated: Mr. Ventro, Mr. Barge

Providing tasty and nourishing meals at low costs has been the function of the cafeteria staff. A pleasant variety of food is prepared for lunch, and during the break donuts and other goodies are served.

To maintain a school of Fort Hunt's size a skilled custodial staff is essential. Despite the staff's few members, the school is kept in tip-top shape.

Editorial Comment . .

I wish to express special appreciation to the following people for their aid in compiling this yearbook:

The Hunter Publishing Company and Jim Ellis for dealing with exceptional problems.

To Robert Charles Studio and Robert and Sandy Gavenous for all their photography contributions.

The faculty for their understanding of missed classes and interruptions by staff members.

The parents of staff members for tolerating the confusion, temperaments, and late hours caused by yearbook work.

To the Fortress Staff for pulling through when really needed, for not giving up when times got rough, and pitching in to help others.

To Ken Craddock, my deepest appreciation, for without him this yearbook would not be possible. Thank you for dealing with a temperamental staff, and for many times doing work that should have been done by the staff.

Editor-in-Chief

In Memoriam

Barbara Dietrich Long
member of faculty September 1970 to March 1976

Joseph Rutledge Larsen
member of the class of 1978

Today is a bridge, which leaves the past behind and looks toward new experiences. Walking on it is called life and we walk it only once. Then how important it is that we should walk it with some purpose that we can call our own.

*Knowledge of the past leads to
Hope for the future.*
